DEVELOPMENTAL TOYS

Winter Wonderland

WRITTEN BY DR. TERESA WHITE

*As the winter chill sets in and the days grow shorter, it's the perfect time to sip on some warm cocoa, and enjoy quality indoor playtime with your little ones. Winter offers a unique opportunity to engage children in enriching, educational, and fun activities. One of the best ways to do this is through the right selection of developmental toys. In this blog, we'll explore a curated list of suggested toys for children aged birth to six years old, each designed to encourage learning, creativity, and endless entertainment during the winter months.*

1. Infant Delights (0-12 Months)

- *Soft Sensory Toys: Colorful, textured, and crinkly toys that stimulate a baby's senses through touch, sight, and sound.
- *Mobiles: Hang a mobile over the crib with gentle motion and soothing music to captivate an infant's attention.

Toddlers and Preschoolers

2. Toddlers' Treasures (1-3 Years)

- *Building Blocks: Stacking blocks like LEGO or DUPLO sets are fantastic for improving fine motor skills and imaginative play.
- *Musical Instruments: Encourage rhythm and creativity with small musical instruments like tambourines or mini keyboards.
- *Pretend Play Sets: Dolls, action figures, play kitchens, and dress-up clothes fuel imaginative play and social development.

**3. Preschool Playtime (3-6 Years):**

- *Art Supplies: Crayons, markers, and coloring books provide a canvas for artistic expression and fine motor skill development.
- *Board Games: Classics like "Chutes and Ladders," "Candy Land," and "Guess Who?" teach children turn-taking, strategy, and basic math.
- *Building Toys: Magnetic tiles or wooden blocks are versatile toys that grow with your child's developmental needs.

This winter, create lasting memories with your scholars through these wonderful toys that blend fun and learning. Whether it's building a snowfort indoors, coloring a winter scene, or going on a pretend adventure, these developmental toys are sure to keep your little ones engaged and this season. So, bundle up and let the winter wonder begin!*
